

Meet the nesting birds of downtown Oakland!

Join Golden Gate Audubon Society and the Rotary Nature Center on a tour of the colonies of black-crowned night herons and snowy egrets that nest downtown every spring. Learn about the birds and catch glimpses of nestling birds and their parents.

Bring binoculars if you have them, a hat, and comfortable walking shoes. Some binoculars available to borrow.

Wednesday, May 4th

12pm to 1pm

Meet at the corner of 14th St and Jackson

“Spend your lunch break learning with Oakland’s most raucous birds!”

Wednesday, May 18th

6pm to 7:30pm

Meet in front of the Oakland Main Library

“See the night-herons at dusk, flying and feeding their young.”

Follow Golden Gate Audubon Society

on Facebook to find out more or check our website

www.goldengateaudubon.org

Co-sponsored by the Rotary Nature Center