

Return of the Terns

USFWS Photo

Crab Cove Visitor Center
Saturday, June 15, 2013, 10:00am-4:00pm

Please join us to celebrate the return of the endangered California least tern! Visit their nest site at the proposed Alameda Wildlife Refuge and observe adult terns bringing food to their camouflaged chicks.

USFWS Photo

Bus Tours to view chicks and their parents, a very rare opportunity

11am (# 2499), 12:15pm (# 2500), and 1:30pm (# 2508). Reserve a one hour bus trip to the proposed Alameda Wildlife Refuge with a USFWS wildlife biologist - $9. To register, call 888-EBPARKS or go to <http://www.ebparksonline.org>. (8+ years).

FREE Slide Presentation at the Crab Cove Visitor Center: learn about least tern natural history before the bus tour: 10:15am, 11:30am, and 12:45pm.

FREE Birdwatching for Terns, at the Crab Cove Visitor Center: 3pm.

Program co-sponsored by:

Crab Cove Visitor Center & Aquarium, EBRPD

1252 McKay Ave.,
Alameda, CA 94501
510-544-3187

510-544-3187